Nadine Face Powder keeps you sweet and dainty

Nadine is a close, fine, "dense" face powder that immediately lightens the tone of the skin, smoothes, and refines the texture and chings to perfectly that you can always look as cool and fresh as a flawer.

you can aways stoke as consumer consumeration with alluring fragmance. Nadline boughet is deep and rich and lastings—a more definite and pronounced fragrance than is found in most powders. Use it on the hands and arms, as well as on the face and throat, to give you dainly fragrance.

WHAT MIGHT HAVE HAPPENED

WHAT MIGHT HAVE HAPPENED

We fairly shuddler when we think of what might have happened, had Judge Mix allowed Nat Winston to be returned to South Carolina, last Friaty, in custody of Shefft Winges.

There is little doubt in our midd as to what would have happened to Winston shortly after, the nows, was confirmed, that he prisoner was within the borders of the Palmetto Sfate. We imagnet that a "neck-tie" party had already been organized and the participants ready to go. By previous arrangements, no doubt, Zao Sherill was to wise ahead, the news, of the copings of Samuel Brown, the Negro, who had muirdered a white man it South Carolina and fled some twenty years ago. Of course the only trial juid was scheduled, was that of the mob. Mob trials are conducted without reason. If those a victim just as much good to say yes as it does to say no. 1 Moh verdicts are the same always. The clouder the pleas of innecease, the loader the yells for blood. So when we think of these things, we can't but shidder to think of what might have happened, if someone had not acted as an advocate and plead before the cours here: and saver! Nat Winston.

Visualize a being exposed to such grave danger.

Visualizes with the prisoner. THE KLAN PARADE

There will be millions of people of these United States who will be sorely disappointed if the Kin Klux Klan is allowed to parade at the Nation's capital Saturday, thus furthering their propagaida of race and religious haired. The statement that the Klan is a benevolent, charity and religious organization, has been repeatedly denied by accress of former members, who say that most of the afnounced principles are merely "catchy" phrases which have caught many good men pud women who aimed for lafty purposes, but when they found out the real purpose of the Klan organization, refused to have anything further to do with it.

The Klin is milke any other organization, refused to have anything further to do with it.

The Klin is milke any other organization, refused to have anything further to do with it.

The Klin is unlike any other organization, refused to have anything further to do with it.

The Klin is unlike any other organization, refused to have anything further to do with it.

The Klin is unlike any other organization religious or fracteral. It does not merely restrict its membership to cettain races or religion, but its further purpose is to rob those whom it discriminates grainst as to membership to cettain races or religion, but its further purpose is to rob those whom it discriminates grainst as to membership or cettain races or religion, but its further purpose is to rob those whom it discriminates grainst as to membership or cettain races or religion, but its further purpose is to rob those whom it discriminates grainst a non-ther; race against race, religion discriminates grainst any member of the Post of the soft free grainstation and the same willing to see what are veiling to see any sort of the constitution and laws of the land to enjoy the full citizenship; in the Klaii says to the Negroes, Jews and Catholics, have as much right under the Constitution and laws of the land to enjoy the full citizenship; inghin as any member of that hooded had or anybody else.

THAT HAIRDRESSERS' BILL

Many have been the complaints that have come to us since the publication in these columns last week, the complete text of the Hairdressers Bill, recently passed by the State Jagislature. We do not see just now how the complaints are going to help the situation, as the bill has been passed, the governor signed it and has appointed a board or commission to carry out the provisions of the law. The merits or demerits, of the bill, will no doubt be fully understood in about a year from now.

Of course, the Negroes of the State, for the most—part, were—disappointed in, that Governor Baker did not appoint a Negro on this board. We understood that the governor made such a promise, and it was generally expected that he would carry out, that per the second of the second o care? We call the people's attention to these things because we be-lieve that the Negroes will always be disappointed in matters of this kind, unless we think when we are voting men into office. The time is at hand when we should vote for men and measures rather than mere party labels.

The ministers of the city say that they are determined in their tight for better school facilities for Negro children. Let all the people say, 'Amen."

The talk about a war between the white and the darker races gained some impetus, since it is reported that Marcus Garvey one deported when he is released from prison at Atlanta.

Following the death and burial of William Jennings Bryan, the Ku Klux Klan, of the realm of Pennsylvania and Ohio, held appropriate ceremonies and burned the fiery cross in honor of the Greatest Klansinan. The tever lived. We wonder if the same hing would happen in the Klan strongholds, should President

A. L. BEAL President Best Underraking Co

Part Finnes avenue new State trand, Ducen of A. I. K. and R. of A. He never boarded with any one and did his working and mending after work

The City of St. Louis is again reminded of what a wide-awake, honest, business like man of our race can do by concentrated efforts.

The above cut is an exact likeness of the remodeled home of Beal Undertaking Company, which has just been completed. The present building tass cut-stone and windows which transform! into an ealffee of charm and dignity. The building comprises eighteen rooms including a general and private office, a private reception room for the bereaved family, Ladles and Gentz rooms, easket and storage rooms, a large sanitary ningue and a beautiful Chapel. The newly-quipped chapel has art windows which cast a soft, gentle light upon the interior, lending a sympathetic air to the room. Besides its front entrance there is a side aloor, leading from the chapel to the covered driveway by which the attendants have enter the cars protected from inclement weather.

of out-of-town patrons who have charge of funeral arrangements or a relative, who must spend one or more nights in the city. They have but to notify the office and their transportation to and from the depot and the guest chamber will be furnished them free of charge.

The entire arrangements throughout the establishment show much thought end study for the comfort and accommodation of their patrona. The new, modern garage will house sixteen automobiles, all cadillac service.

The Beal Undertaking Company stands out as a monument of the race—the natural result of concentrated efforts, patience, courage, bonesty, years of tolling and sacrifice, and that bull-dog determination to win. Efficiency and courtesy have been the busis of their success.

Mr. Beal started in the undertaking business nave been the basis of their success.

Mr. Beal started in the undertaking business September 13, 1913, 2726 Lucas Ave., his present location, in a two-story residence, using the first floor for office, chapel and morgue, and the second floor for living quarters. By his untiring efforts and courteous service, with the assistance of his competent daughter, Miss Birdie Beal, he has built up a business second to none of its kind, owned and operated by members of Our group.

In 1921, they added to the business a chartered Benevolent Burial Association to which a foliming fee of $3.50 per family entitles each member and the second and Ave., about September 1, 1223 with air modern conveniences for the accommodation of their West End patrons. Mr. L. V. Atkins will have charge as, manager and the same courteous, sympathetic service that has always characterized the Beal Undertaking Company will be accorded the patrons of the new establishment.
